Our bodies are delicate vehicles that strive to maintain a balance; a harmony of hydration and an even flow of detox. The influx of pollutants and carcinogens that flood our cities and are added to our food deter our bodies' natural detoxification process. This can result in an increase in fatigue, immune deficiencies and many other health care issues. Energy must be provided to balance the body. The BEST Energy Foot Bath is an ionic foot bath that utilizes aircraft quality grade parts to boost bodily energy, allowing the body to reach its full potential! Positive and negative energy fields are transferred into the water and the body absorbs that energy. The energy is then used by the body to detox and cleanse. The BEST Energy Foot Bath starts the detoxification process on three levels: through the colon, urinary system, and skin, respectively.
